About Jennie

Elite Division trial in Santa Rosa, CA in 2015. Jennie never dreamed that she and Karlie would go so far and grow so much as a team.

Jennie's second Golden, Abbie started playing Nose Work games as a puppy and Jennie very quickly learned the value of this game to build self-confidence in puppies as well as adult dogs. Jennie and Abbie went on to earn their ELT2 and met the requirements for the 2017 National Invitational in MA.

Jennie is now competing at the Elite level with her 6-year-old Labrador, Emerson and just starting her NW3 journey with her 3-year-old Golden Retriever, Lainey.

Jennie's love of the game and the benefits it has for dogs and owners alike, motivated her to achieve CNWI status in May, 2011. She currently teaches numerous K9 Nose Work® classes each week and offers a number of roaming drop-in classes. Jennie's students range from those just starting out on their nose work adventures to those competing at the Summit level. Jennie works as part of the NACSW™ Trial Department, oversees memberships and the ORT Team, has been a Certifying Official for the NACSW™ since 2012, and is also a trial judge.
